COUNCIL.

January 224, 1880.

At 2 o'clock yesterday alternoon the sitting of the eleventh day of the session was regularly begun.

The chief clerk read a communication from the House, saying that that body had passed a bill to amend section 72 of the Compiled Laws of the Scribing fees for the Secretary of Utah Territory, with the recommendation from the section be added to it, reading: "For any other commission state of the commendation from the section be added to it, reading: "For any other commission state of the commendation from the section be added to it, reading: "For any other commission state of the commendation from the section be added to it, reading: "For any other commission state another section as a suspension of the section of th sion, $1." Under a suspension of the rules, the amendment was adopted, the bill was read the second time, passed its second realing; the litle was then read, and the bill passed and was sent to the House for concurrence in the amendment.

Councilor Teadale introduced a lill for an act to authorize corporation.

Control of two additional sections.

The House adjourned until 2 o'clock on the Color of the City Fish why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound keepers, constables, jurors, judges, city councilmen, legislators, congressment, or even the President of the United States, but it seems a conviction in my mind that it should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound keepers, constables, jurors, judges, city councilmen, legislators, congressment, or even the President of the United States, but it seems a conviction in my mind that it should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, pound why women should not be allowed to hold office as school trustees, po First tion in my mind that it should not be so, and the same conviction has become stamped upon the minds of the majority of the leading men in all Christendom.
